

Storyville for Chagall

“The audio guides for those never using audio guides”:

Storyville makes short audio documentary, combining the power and the spontaneous strength of videos with the intimacy and simplicity of the sound story. Words created to be listened and not texts born to be read.

The voices of the artist's grand-daughter Meret Meyer, of the director of the Musée Chagall in Nice Sylvie Forestier, of the Fondation Maeght's director Jean Louis Prat and of the curatrix Claudia Beltramo Ceppi will “tell” the Pisan exhibition dedicated to a Mediterranean Chagall.

And there will also be him, Marc Chagall, to thank destiny “to have taken him to the seashores of the Mediterranean”.
